

MARTIAL ARTS INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION
THE PEAK INDUSTRY BODY FOR MARTIAL ARTS IN AUSTRALIA

NATIONAL MARTIAL ARTS INSTRUCTOR ACCREDITATION SCHEME
COURSE ENROLMENT CONDITIONS
Effective from 1 July 2015

1. The MAIA NMAS Accreditation Course shall only be accessible to members of the MAIA.
2. Accreditation is linked to MAIA membership number listed on the original application. Accreditation may not be transferred to another organization or membership, updates must be completed under the membership number via which the original Accreditation was issued.
3. A signed hard copy application form together with the appropriate deposit/fee shall be the only acceptable application method. Faxed, emailed or phoned in bookings will not be accepted.
4. An application form must be received by the final booking date saving that if a course is fully booked prior to the final booking date course positions will then be allocated on the basis of the date the application is received. Those excluded for reason of a course being fully booked will be given the option of a position in the next course or a full refund of their deposit/fee paid.
5. The MAIA reserves the right to reject any Accreditation Application.
6. In providing answers to Question 6: Teaching Experience (years) Training (years); information regarding training experience, teaching experience and rank held the following must be adhered to:
 - a. casual training, seminar attendance and training that does not incorporate competency assessment should not be claimed
 - b. training under persons who are unqualified does not constitute valid training experience
 - c. Internet 'training', DVD 'training/learning' shall not constitute learning or teaching time
7. Accreditation Updates shall be renewed for a period of four years from the expiry date of the current accreditation.

8. An incomplete application form may not be accepted. Unanswered questions or questions answered with 'Not applicable' or 'N/A' may be cause for the application being rejected.
9. It is a condition of enrolment that the applicant accepts, agrees and understands that if any course document, required as part of the 'Accreditation Submission', that is lost misplaced or for whatever reason is not included as part of the applicants 'Accreditation Submission' that this will be sufficient reason for the applicant to be denied accreditation.
10. It is a condition of enrollment that the applicant accepts, agrees and understands that accreditation, if granted, is contingent upon the applicant being part of the Accreditation Update Program, abiding by the National Code of Practice for Martial Arts Centres and Instructors and being insured by the MAIA Insurer.
11. It is a condition of enrollment that the applicant accepts, agrees and understands that accreditation, if granted, is contingent upon the applicant maintaining membership with the MAIA member via which the original accreditation application is made and accepted and that should this membership be cancelled or lapse then the accreditation will be revoked.
12. It is a condition of enrollment that the applicant accepts, agrees and understands that accreditation, if granted, is contingent upon the applicant not being a member of any organization that is deemed to be an 'conflicting organisation' by the MAIA.
